RAKI ETHIOPIA;

- One cannot get drunk.
- What is said at the table stays at the table.
- Don't talk on the phone. If it rings, pick it up, say "I'm drinking raki" and hang up.
- Don't play with the GSM.
- Speak properly, don't be unnecessarily cute.
- Those who go fast while drinking raki should be messed with, those who fall slowly should not be messed with.
- Slang is spoken, no swearing is allowed.
- Everyone saves the country according to their own temperament, don't interfere.
- Don't make silly jokes.
- If there is, the music is turned on loud enough to be heard, without shouting.
- There is no shortage of sadness or joy.
- You can't cry at the table.
- If someone starts crying, the subject is changed and they are not comforted.
- Discussions can be made, but hearts are not broken.
- There is no silence at the raki table.
- Don't go to the bathroom in a hurry.
- You can fly a little bit, but you can't lie.
- Don't talk loudly.
- The sweater cannot be tucked into trousers. - Do not stand naked/half naked.

- Poetry is spoken, poetry is not read.
- No other drink is drunk while drinking raki.
- Do not drink coffee with sugar after raki.
- Raki is not drunk alone.
- Raki is not poured by the waiter.
- You cannot put water before raki and ice before water.
- Raki is not drunk neat.
- Little finger is not raised while drinking.
- Raki is not drunk quickly.
- Raki is not made with fondip.
- You cannot drink raki before the time for karahah.
- You can't drink raki with someone who talks big.
- You cannot drink raki with someone who talks too much.
- Raki is not drunk with a quiet talker.
- Raki is not drunk with a person who does not understand a joke.
- Business is not discussed at the raki table.
- You can't clink glasses in a row.
- The glass is not kept empty.
- You cannot even go to the toilet from the table without permission.
- Cheers etc. are enough, do not be creative while clinking glasses.
- Don't let the waiter clean the fish.
- You cannot drink raki from a glass whose inside is not visible.
- No situation or idea is insisted on.
- Racon cannot be cut.
- Arrogance and jealousy cannot be tolerated.
- Don't listen to the conversation at the next table.
- Don't stare at another table for long.
- Couples don't hold hands or flirt.
- You drink at a shaking table, you don't drink with a shaking person.
- These happen spontaneously, they are not done by force.
